

Grades of Incomplete

At the end of the semester/term, the instructor for a course may assign a grade of “I” when a student’s work in a course is incomplete due to circumstances beyond the student’s control, but is otherwise of passing quality. The deficiency must be made up no later than the end of the following